Visit to the Forensic Laboratory, Nashik

The visit was organised by the ND M.V.P. Law College, Nashik to the forensic lab on 30 Jan. 2019. It was a well organized visit which was initiated by Prof. Manoj Pekhale. The object of the visit was to know about the forensic study of the particular case in detail. The study was helpful for both law and medical students.

Also we got to know some vital information and important cases which were related to forensic investigation which helped us to understand the facts and information related to forensics. After gathering all information, we were taken inside the building where we were shown a video helping us understand the procedure and techniques relating to investigation on cases. After the video we gave a feedback about the visit and students left the laboratory.

Overall it was an awesome experience and thanks to Prof. Manoj Pekhale who took the initiative for the students to have a practical experience in the study of Forensic Sciences.
