The Syllabus of non-law Subjects must be framed by a non-law subject expert for practical aspects of the curriculum. Ex- economy, political science, sociology, and English.

Curriculum shall be revised as per need of society. Some new laws shall be added in curriculum. Students shall know the laws applicable in various sectors while they learning their degree course. Law field also shall be included in new education policy like other stream.

The syllabus should cover a more practical approach.

Syllabus of few subjects be reduced.

Syllabus should also be provided in Marathi for those students who opt marathi medium. We don't get sufficient time for teaching due to very disturbed schedule of Programs. So syllabus should be reduced for certain subjects.
